Press Release For Immediate Release

Area Range Judging Contest To Be Held

Curtis – Over 125 FFA students, agriculture professionals, and other adults will converge in the Wellfleet area on Wednesday, September 22 for the Area 3 Range Judging Contest. Registration will be from 8:30-9:00 at the Dancing Leaf Earth Lodge located at 6100 E Opal Springs Rd.

Range judging contests, held at various locations around Nebraska, test students' knowledge on range plant identification and range management. The State Range Judging Contest will be held in Gosper County on September 29.

Agriculture professionals and other adults are also invited to take part in this contest. Anyone interested should contact the Middle Republican NRD in Curtis before the contest for more information.

Sponsors for this contest are the Natural Resources Conservation Service, Lincoln County Cooperative Extension, the Nebraska Section of the Society for Range Management, and the Middle Republican NRD.
